

Revenue Analysis

Total Revenue

222K

Actual Revenue

211K

Total Refund

12K

Avg Ticket Price

23.35

Select Date of Journey

25-02-2024

01-04-2024

Revenue by Ticket Class

Standard First Class

Revenue by Ticket Type

Advance Off-Peak Anytime

Revenue by Railcard

None Adult Disabled Senior

Revenue by Payment Method

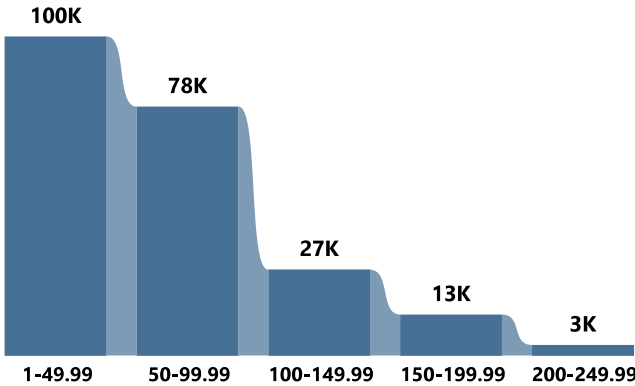

Credit Card Contactless Debit Card

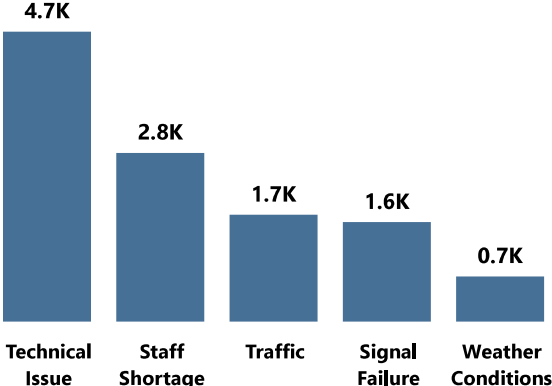

Top 10 Routes by Revenue

Routes	Total revenue
London Kings Cross - York	55379
Liverpool Lime Street - London Euston	32240
London Paddington - Reading	20171
London Euston - Manchester Piccadilly	17878
London St Pancras - Birmingham New Street	16230
London Euston - Birmingham New Street	15177
Manchester Piccadilly - London Euston	9460
Birmingham New Street - London St Pancras	6440
Manchester Piccadilly - Liverpool Lime Street	5172
Manchester Piccadilly - London Paddington	4844

Revenue by Price Category

Revenue lost by Reason for Delay

Revenue over Time

Journey Analysis

Total Journey

9520

Avg Journey Time

1h 14m

On Time Perform...

85.93%

Avg Delay Time

41m

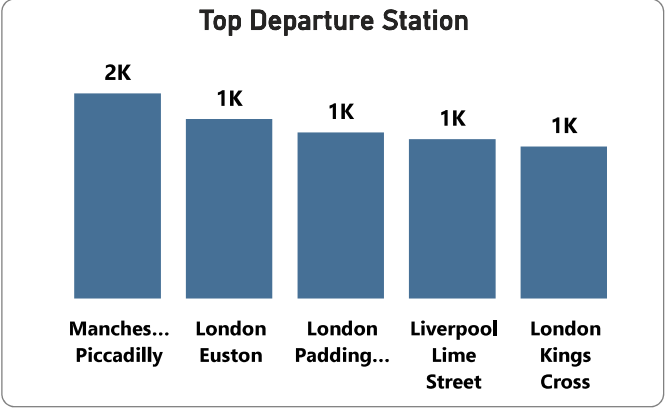

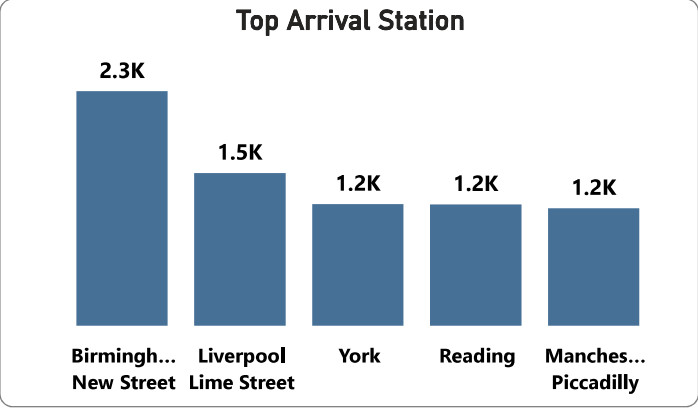

Cancellation R...

6%

Select Date of Journey

25-02-2024

01-04-2024

Station Analysis

Ticket Type

Advance

Anytime

Off-Peak

Ticket Class

First Class

Standard

Select Date of Journey

25-02-2024

01-04-2024

Most Popular Routes

Routes	Total journeys
Manchester Piccadilly - Liverpool Lime Street	1410
London St Pancras - Birmingham New Street	1025
London Paddington - Reading	1191
London Kings Cross - York	1181
London Euston - Birmingham New Street	1269

Most Delayed Routes

Routes	Delayed Rate
Edinburgh Waverley - London Kings Cross	100%
London Euston - York	100%
York - Wakefield	100%
Liverpool Lime Street - London Euston	80%
Manchester Piccadilly - London Euston	70%

Most Cancelled Routes

Routes	Cancellation Rate
Liverpool Lime Street - Birmingham New Street	40%
London Paddington - Oxford	21%
Reading - Didcot	20%
York - Birmingham New Street	20%
Birmingham New Street - Wolverhampton	13%

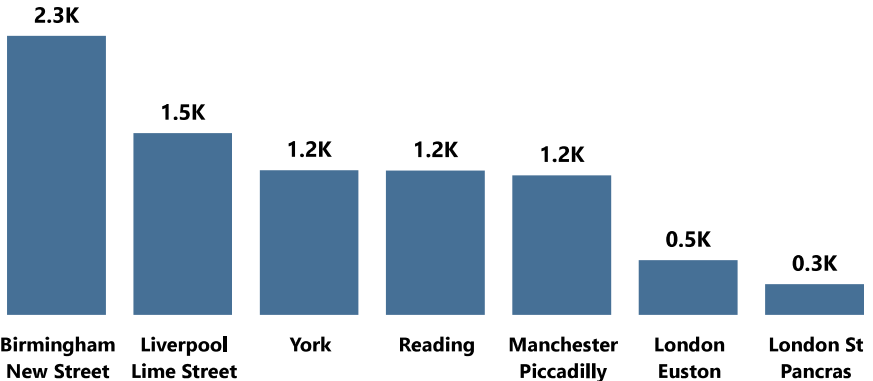

Top Departure Stations

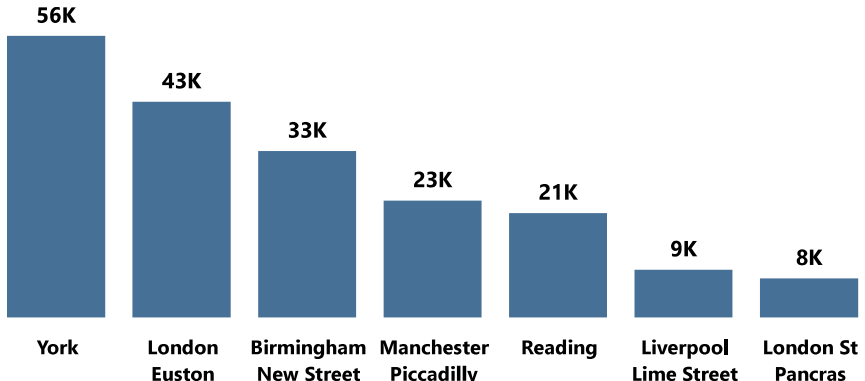

Departure Station Revenue Contribution

Top Arrival Stations

Arrival Station Revenue Contribution

National Rail Performance Dashboard: Key Insights

Revenue Analysis 💰

- Total Revenue: Generated a significant total revenue of 222K, with actual revenue slightly lower at 211K after refunds.
- Revenue by Ticket Class: Majority of the revenue came from Standard class (176K) compared to First class (47K).
- Revenue by Ticket Type: Anytime tickets were the highest revenue generators (95K), followed by Advance (69K) and Off-Peak (59K).
- Revenue by Railcard: Non-railcard holders contributed the most (172K), with Adult railcard holders generating 26K.
- Top Revenue Routes: The London Kings Cross to York route topped the list with 55,379.
- Revenue Loss: The primary reason for revenue loss was technical issues, costing 4.7K.
- Revenue by Price Category: Most tickets sold were within the 1-49.99 price range, generating 100K.
- Revenue Trend: There was a noticeable increase in revenue towards the March, peaking at over 8K followed by 7K on multiple days.

National Rail Performance Dashboard: Key Insights

Journey Analysis

- Total Journeys: Over 9,520 journeys were analyzed, with an average journey time of 1 hour and 14 minutes.
- Journey Delays: Weather conditions and technical issues were the leading causes of delays, with 68% and 66% of journeys delayed respectively.
- Journey Status: The majority of journeys were on time (85.93%), while 6% were cancelled.
- Top Stations: Manchester Piccadilly and London Euston were the busiest stations for departures, while Birmingham New Street led in arrivals.
- Peak Travel Times: The busiest times for travel were at 6 AM and 6 PM, indicating high commuter activity.
- Ticket Class: Standard class tickets dominated, making up 6,679 journeys compared to 739 in First class.

National Rail Performance Dashboard: Key Insights

Station Analysis

- Most Popular Routes: The Manchester Piccadilly to Liverpool Lime Street route was the most popular, with 1,410 journeys.
- Delayed Routes: Routes like Edinburgh Waverley to London Kings Cross had a 100% delay rate.
- Cancelled Routes: The Liverpool Lime Street to Birmingham New Street route had the highest cancellation rate at 40%.
- Station Transactions: Manchester Piccadilly and Birmingham New Street had the highest number of transactions, indicating their importance in the network.
- Departure and Arrival revenue contribution : Major stations like London Kings cross and York consistently showed high revenue, reflecting their role as key hubs in the network.